History of the Arnold Sports Festival

What began as a one-day professional bodybuilding competition in Columbus, Ohio nearly three decades ago has grown into the world's largest multi-sport fitness weekend, with four days of sports competitions, demonstrations, seminars, entertainment and the latest fitness products.

The story of the Arnold Sports Festival dates to 1970, when Columbus sports promoter Jim Lorimer invited a young Austrian bodybuilder named Arnold Schwarzenegger to Columbus to compete in the Mr. World contest that was accompanying that year's World Weightlifting Championships.

Schwarzenegger won the contest, earned $1,000 and vowed to return to Columbus one day to partner with Lorimer and promote the sport of bodybuilding. After winning the Mr. Olympia contest every year between 1970-1975, Schwarzenegger was true to his word.

Schwarzenegger and Lorimer promoted the Mr. Olympia contest in Columbus six times between 1976 and 1986 before founding the Arnold Classic in 1989.

When Schwarzenegger was appointed the chairman of the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports, he charged Lorimer to expand the scope of the Arnold Classic weekend to include other sports. Martial Arts and gymnastics were among the first added.

More events have been added annually and the weekend was renamed the Arnold Sports Festival in 2006. In 2017, 70 sports and events will be held at the annual celebration of health and fitness.

The sports and events feature 14 Olympic sports, eight IFBB Pro League contests, the Arnold Strongman Classic and the world famous Arnold Amateur Championships.

The Arnold Sports Festival began expanding to other countries in 2011 with the creation of Arnold Classic Europe, held in Spain. Arnold Classic Brasil debuted in 2013 and the first Arnold Classic Australia was held in 2015. Arnold Classic Africa in Johannesburg and Arnold Classic Asia in Hong Kong were held for the first time in 2016.

2017 Arnold Sports Festival To Feature Record 20,000 Athletes From 80 Nations In 70 Sports & Events

Columbus Convention Center, Ohio Expo Center To Host Most Events

COLUMBUS, OHIO – The Arnold Sports Festival, already the largest multi-sport event in the world, will grow even larger in 2017 when an estimated 20,000 athletes from 80 nations compete in 70 sports & events from March 2-5, 2017 in Columbus, Ohio.

Headlining the festival are professional bodybuilding and strongman competitions with the most well built and strongest athletes in the world. These premier physique and strongman competitions are featured on two structurally reinforced stages at the Greater Columbus Convention Center.

The PCS Pole Fitness National Championships, returning for its fourth year, will be held at Battelle Grand on Friday, March 3, immediately following Arnold Classic 212, Fitness International, Figure International and Arnold Women's Physique International Finals.

The 29th Arnold Classic will be held at Battelle Grand on Saturday, March 4, along with the Arnold Strongman Classic, Bikini International and Arnold Classic Men's Physique Finals.

The Arnold Amateur Bodybuilding, Fitness, Figure, Bikini & Physique Championships will be held at the Battelle Grand and Arnold Fitness EXPO on Friday, March 3 and Saturday, March 4 and attract more than 700 athletes from 80 nations.

Sports and events at the Ohio Expo Center in 2017 include Arnold SportsWorld Kids & Teens EXPO, archery, baton twirling, boxing, cheerleading & dance, gymnastics, lacrosse, table tennis, taekwondo, and XPC Powerlifting & POWERX.

The Arnold SportsWorld Kids & Teens EXPO features competitions in basketball, volleyball, as well as a talent show and teen fitness pageant. Attendees can also try out more than 20 sports with hands-on clinics lead by area sports teams and have fun trying the Spartan obstacle course and several zip lines. The Arnold SportsWorld Kids & Teens EXPO is Saturday, March 4 and Sunday, March 5.

New events in 2017 include lacrosse, disabled powerlifting, yoga, handball, Indoor Scottish Highland Games, Arnold Pro Strongwoman and the Arnold Transformation Challenge.

The 2017 Arnold Fitness EXPO will be held March 3-5 at the Greater Columbus Convention Center, and feature more than 1,000 booths of the latest in sports equipment, apparel and nutrition and stages that host unique, non-stop competitions and entertainment that combine to make the Arnold Fitness EXPO the heart of the Arnold Sports Festival.

Admission to the Arnold Fitness EXPO and most events at the Greater Columbus Convention Center and the Arnold SportsWorld Kids & Teens EXPO and all events at the Ohio Expo Center are included in the Daily EXPO Ticket ($15 each or 3 for $40 in advance, $20 at the door). Children 14 and under are FREE. Parking at the Ohio Expo Center will be $8. FREE shuttles will run from the Ohio Expo Center to the Greater Columbus Convention Center on Friday, March 3-Sunday, March 5.

Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger and Jim Lorimer have co-produced the Arnold Sports Festival since 1989, when it debuted as a one-day bodybuilding competition known as the Arnold Classic. The Arnold Sports Festival has grown over the years and is now a four-day festival that features more than 70 sports and events.

2017 Arnold Classic Worldwide Features Festivals On Six Continents

COLUMBUS, Ohio – The Arnold Sports Festival will hold multi-sport festivals on six continents in 2017, including the Arnold Classic South America in São Paulo, Brasil for the first time.

The Arnold Sports Festival USA will be held in Columbus, Ohio in March, followed by events in Melbourne, Australia; São Paulo, Brasil; Johannesburg, South Africa; Hong Kong and Barcelona, Spain.

All events will feature professional bodybuilding and related IFBB Pro League contests, amateur bodybuilding, strength and combat sports, a large health and fitness expo and youth events that vary from continent to continent.

“The Arnold Classic Worldwide brand is now the largest series of multi-sport festivals in the world and we look forward to making each of our Arnold Classic weekends better than our previous best,” said James J. Lorimer, CEO of Classic Productions, Inc., who co-founded the Arnold Classic in Columbus with Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger in 1989.

“I look forward to continuing my worldwide fitness crusade in 2017 as we again travel to all six continents to promote the Arnold Classic multi-sports festival – the largest multi-sports festival in the world,” Schwarzenegger said.

2017 Arnold Classic Worldwide schedule:

Arnold Sports Festival USA, Columbus, Ohio, March 2-5, 2017

Arnold Classic Australia, Melbourne, March 17-19, 2017

Arnold Classic South America, São Paulo, Brasil, April 21-23, 2017

Arnold Classic Africa, Johannesburg, South Africa, May 5-7, 2017

Arnold Classic Asia, Hong Kong, August 18-20, 2017

Arnold Classic Europe, Barcelona, Spain, September 22-24, 2017

The 2017 Arnold Sports Festival USA will feature more than 18,000 athletes from 80 nations competing in more than 70 sports and events, including IFBB Pro League events in men’s open bodybuilding, men’s 212, men’s physique, fitness, figure, bikini, women’s physique and pro wheelchair. The Arnold Amateur IFBB/NPC Bodybuilding, Fitness, Figure, Bikini & Physique Championships will return for an 11th year, with more than 700 athletes from 80 nations.

The Arnold Classic South America will be held in São Paulo, Brasil for the first time after being staged annually in Rio de Janeiro since 2013. The move will allow the event to expand even larger by moving into the Transamerica Expo Center in São Paulo.

Arnold Classic Europe will be held in Barcelona again in 2017 after being held in Madrid from 2011-2015. Arnold Classic Africa and Arnold Classic Asia will each be staged for the second time in 2017 after successful debut events in 2016.

Visit www.arnoldsportsfestival.com for more information on the Arnold Sports Festival USA and all other events on the 2017 Arnold Classic Worldwide schedule.

MARCH 2-5, 2017 COLUMBUS, OHIO USA

McMillan, McCarver To Do Battle At 2017 Arnold Classic

COLUMBUS, Ohio (Dec. 20, 2016) – Cedric McMillan, who finished second in the 2016 Arnold Classic, will return to the Arnold Sports Festival in Columbus this March looking to notch the biggest victory of his professional bodybuilding career.

McMillan and rising superstar Dallas McCarver are among a field of the 10 professional bodybuilders who will do battle at the 29th Annual Arnold Classic on March 4, 2017 in Columbus, Ohio. Josh Lenartowicz, who was also expected to contend, withdrew from the contest on Feb. 10 due to personal reasons.

In the Arnold Classic 212, defending champion Hidetada Yamagishi and 2016 runner-up Jose Raymond lead a field of 11 professionals that includes the entire top six from the 2016 Arnold Classic 212. David Henry, who finished third in Columbus in 2016, and Gaetano Cisternino Jr., fourth a year ago, will also contend, while Kyong Won Kang (5th in 2016) and Charles Dixon (6th) will look to improve on last year's showings.

In the Fitness International, three-time defending champion Oksana Grishina and 2016 runner-up Whitney Jones lead an ultra-competitive field of 14 that includes the top five finishers from the 2016 Fitness International. Grishina has become the sport's dominant star, winning ten straight IFBB Pro League contests.

In the Figure International, defending champion Latorya Watts is the heavy favorite in a field of 15. Gennifer Strobo (3rd), Candice Lewis-Carter (4th), Cydney Gillon (5th) and Heather Dees (6th) are back after finishing in the top six in Columbus a year ago. Michele Silva was the overall at the Arnold Amateur in 2016 and earned an automatic invitation.

Defending champion India Paulino leads a field of 18 as she tries and become the first three-time champion in the Bikini International. Paulino also won in Columbus in 2013. She will be challenged by 2016 runner-up Justine Munro and Janet Layug, who was third here a year ago.

In 2017, The Arnold Classic Men's Physique and Women's Physique International contests are once again open and do not require an invitation. However, Men's Physique and Women's Physique competitors must have finished in the top 10 in an IFBB Pro League contest in the past two years to be eligible in Columbus. More than 30 will compete in Arnold Classic Men's Physique and more than 40 will compete in Women's Physique International, including defending champions Brandon Hendrickson and Autumn Swansen. Visit www.arnoldsportsfestival.com for the complete competitor lists.

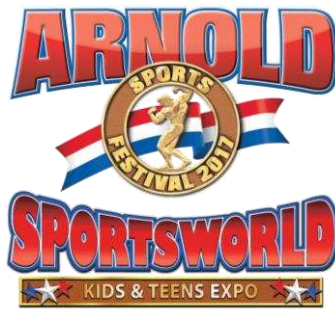

The Arnold Classic 212, Fitness International, Figure International and Physique International will be held on Friday, March 3, 2017; while the Arnold Classic, Arnold Classic Men's Physique and Bikini International will be held on Saturday, March 4, 2017 with prejudging and finals at Battelle Grand.

Arnold SportsWorld Kids & Teens EXPO Offers Two Days of Family Fun, Sports Activities, Entertainment

COLUMBUS, OHIO – The Arnold SportsWorld Kids & Teens EXPO will again highlight a wide variety of sports and events that will be held at the Ohio Expo Center during the 2017 Arnold Sports Festival.

For the third straight year, the Arnold SportsWorld Kids & Teens EXPO will present a smorgasbord of interactive sports demonstrations, activities, a stage with non-stop entertainment and more than 200 vendors – all under one roof. Children 14 and under are admitted FREE.

“The Arnold SportsWorld Kids & Teens EXPO offers parents and their children an opportunity to experience dozens of sports and activities and hopefully allow the children to discover a sport that they wish to pursue,” said Jim Lorimer, who co-founded the Arnold Sports Festival with Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger in 1989. “This year’s Arnold SportsWorld Kids & Teens EXPO will provide the most varied amount of sports and activities to children of all ages and again feature our city’s major professional, amateur and youth sports organizations.”

In addition to the Arnold SportsWorld Kids & Teen Expo, sports competitions in Amateur Boxing, Archery, Baton Twirling, Cheerleading and Dance, Gymnastics, Lacrosse, Table Tennis, Taekwondo, XPC Powerlifting and POWERX will also be held at the Ohio Expo Center during the Arnold Sports Festival, March 3-5, 2017.

The Arnold SportsWorld Kids & Teens EXPO will be held on Saturday, March 5 and Sunday, March 6 at the Bricker Building. The event will feature demonstrations and hand-on activities by the Columbus Blue Jackets (hockey), Columbus Clippers (baseball), Ohio Machine (lacrosse), Royal Arts Fencing Academy, Cyclone Gymnastics, Buckeye Chess Club, the United States Tennis Association, World Jump Rope, Ace Archery, Spartan Obstacle Course, Oriental Martial Arts College (taekwondo) the YMCA (volleyball and 3 on 3 basketball) and many others. The non-profit Second & 7 Foundation and the Pro Football Hall of Fame will team up to present football, while former Ohio State star Scoonie Penn and the YMCA will partner to present basketball.

Hocking Hills Canopy Tour and ZipZone Canopy Tour will both offer free zip lines at the Kids & Teens EXPO.

The Arnold SportsWorld Kids & Teens EXPO will also feature a stage with two days of entertainment, highlighted by the by the Arnold’s Quest For Talent! Finals from 1-2:3 p.m. on Saturday, March 4. Chris Kirkpatrick, of the band *NSYNC, will emcee the talent show. The second-annual Arnold Miss Teen Fitness Pageant will be held on the Arnold SportsWorld stage at 11:45 a.m. on Sunday, March 5. Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger will present awards to the winners of both competitions.

2017 Arnold Sports Festival - Media Registration

The Arnold Sports Festival welcomes all working members of the media to request complimentary credentials to cover its events.

Please coordinate your planned coverage and include all requests for credentials on one application for each media outlet. The editor or owner should submit the request.

To obtain credentials, complete these three steps.

- 1. LETTER OF ASSIGNMENT - Editors/Owners must provide a letter of assignment written on company letterhead that specifies each event to be covered by staff and at what capacity (such as writer or photographer).
- 2. MEDIA CREDENTIAL REQUEST FORM - Editors/Owners must complete and sign the Media Credential Request Form found on page three.
- 3. PREVIOUS COVERAGE - Editors/Owners must include coverage of the 2016 Arnold Sports Festival if attended or recent coverage of a similar event if not attended.

Credentials work in a hierarchy, only one credential per person. Credential types include:

- MEDIA GENERAL – Permits access to most of the venues and events including all EXPO events. It does not include access to the professional IFBB events at Battelle Grand and does not include an assigned seat at any event.
- MEDIA SEATING – Provides access to seats at Battelle Grand (NO assigned Seat). Includes access to Media - General events above.
- MEDIA CENTER – Access to media work area next to west side of stage in Battelle Grand. No view of stage. Includes access to Media Seating area as space is available and Media - General events above.
- MEDIA PIT – Permits access as above and also includes an assigned seat in the front stage media areas for specified events only.

We reserve the right to refuse media credentials, without cause, during pre-registration as well as at the onsite media registration. Due to high demand, media credentials are limited in number, so please return your request at your earliest convenience. The Arnold Sports Festival does not mail credentials in advance. Credentials must be picked up in person at the Media Room located in D-132 at the Greater Columbus Convention Center or in the Media Center in Battelle Grand during open hours that will be verified on your confirmation.

Exclusive Media Rights

The Arnold Sports Festival retains exclusive media rights (including, but not limited to, rights in broadcast, cable, audio, home video, Internet, or such other recordings, accounts or descriptions, now known or hereafter devised) to all events. The use, account, description, picture, photograph, video, audio, reproduction, or other information acquired at Arnold Sports Festival venues other than for news coverage (defined as the description or depiction of newsworthy events or information) is strictly prohibited. (For avoidance of doubt, no person shall use any content described above in any commercial manner), except with the prior written consent of the Arnold Sports Festival.

No video/audio from the professional IFBB events can be aired or published including online until after the events have concluded.

Video/audio coverage shall be no longer than 3 minutes in length unless prior written consent of the Arnold Sports Festival is granted.
