Insurance of the competitors

Participation in competitions is allowed only if there is an original contract for life and health insurance against accidents for each participant, which is provided to the commission for registration and admission of participants.

Participants are insured at the expense of sending organizations.

Competition conditions

Competitions are personal and are held in the absolute weight category among men and women according to the current rules of the International Mas-Wrestling Federation, according to the system of elimination after two defeats, divided into groups "A" and "B".

In the first round, pairs are drawn up according to the draw. Athletes who won their bouts continue to compete in group "A" until reaching the final, losers continue to compete in group "B" and have the right to fight only for third place. If in group "B" there are two athletes who previously met in group "A", then they are given a second bout. All athletes who have lost two times are eliminated from the competition. With an odd number of participants, the athlete occupying the last numbering in the draw in the course becomes free in this circle and in the next round of the competition rises to the top line of the tournament table and competes with the red side of the platform.

In the system of competitions, changes are possible depending on the number of participants according to the rules of the competition.

Weight categories:

- Men - absolute weight category (minimum weight 95 kg);
- Women - the absolute weight category (minimum weight 75 kg).

The final results (protocols) on paper and electronic media are submitted to the International Mas-Wrestling Federation within two weeks from the date of the end of the sporting event.

Awarding

Participants who took the 1st, the 2nd and two 3rd places in each category at the European Mas-Wrestling Championship in the absolute weight category will be awarded diplomas, medals and valuable prizes

Security and Safety
